We can make changes to these Terms and any terms and conditions incorporated by reference at any time and your acceptance of these Terms constitutes your express consent. We will let you know of any changes by email or via our Website.

We will let you know in advance of most changes and will give you notice before the changes take effect. However, we may occasionally need to make changes without telling you in advance. This may include where:

RESOLVING DISPUTES: ARBITRATION, CLASS ACTION WAIVER

For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this section will deprive you of any mandatory legal right from which you benefit under Applicable Law.

30. Notice of Claim and Dispute Resolution Period

- 30.1. Please contact TNQ first if you have any concerns with TNQ Services. TNQ wants to address your concerns without resorting to formal legal proceedings, if possible. A ticket number will be assigned to you if your concerns cannot be addressed to your satisfaction at first instance. The issuance of the ticket number commences the internal dispute resolution procedure. TNQ will attempt to resolve the dispute internally as soon as possible. The parties agree to negotiate in good faith to resolve the dispute (which discussions shall remain confidential and be subject to applicable rules protecting settlement discussions from use as evidence in any legal proceeding).
- 30.2. In the event the dispute cannot be resolved satisfactorily, and you wish to assert a Claim against TNQ, then you agree to set forth the basis of such Claim in writing in a "Notice of Claim," as a form of prior notice to TNQ. The Notice of Claim must (1) describe the nature and basis of the claim or dispute, (2) set forth the specific relief sought, (3) provide the original ticket number, and (4) include your account email. The Notice of Claim should be emailed to: support@tngtoken.io. After you have provided the Notice of Claim to TNQ, the dispute referenced in the Notice of Claim may be submitted by either TNQ or you to arbitration in accordance with the below clause (Agreement to Arbitrate).
- 30.3. For the avoidance of doubt, the submission of a dispute to TNQ for resolution internally and the delivery of a Notice of Claim to TNQ are prerequisites to the commencement of an arbitration proceeding (or any other legal proceeding).
- 30.4. During the arbitration, the amount of any settlement offer made by you or TNQ shall not be disclosed to the arbitrator.

31. Agreement to Arbitrate

31.1. Aside from where Applicable Law requires or provides you with a choice otherwise, you and TNQ agree that subject to the immediately preceding clause above (Notice of Claim and Dispute Resolution Period), any Claim shall be determined by mandatory final and binding individual (not class) arbitration administered by the Asia International Arbitration Centre (“AIAC”) in accordance with the AIAC Rules for the time being in force, which rules are deemed incorporated by reference in this clause.

31.2. The seat of arbitration shall be in Malaysia.

31.3. The Tribunal shall consist of one (1) arbitrator to be appointed in accordance with the AIAC Rules for the time being in force.

31.4. The language of the arbitration shall be in English.

31.5. You and TNQ further agree that the arbitrator shall have the exclusive power to rule on his or her own jurisdiction, including without limitation any objections with respect to the existence, scope or validity of the Agreement to Arbitrate, or the arbitrability of any Claim.

31.6. The arbitration provisions set forth in this clause will survive termination of these Terms.

31.7. Limitation period for filing

Any arbitration against TNQ must be commenced by filing and serving a Notice of Arbitration in accordance with the AIAC Rules within three (3) years after the date that the user asserting the Claim first found out or reasonably should have found out the alleged act, omission or default giving rise to the Claim (“Limitation Period”). For the avoidance of doubt, the Limitation Period shall include the Dispute Resolution Period set out at Clause 31.1. There shall be no right to any remedy or relief for any Claim by the user if the Notice of Arbitration in respect of that Claim is not filed and served on TNQ within that Limitation Period. If the Limitation Period is contrary to applicable law, the user shall be required to bring any Claim against TNQ within the shortest time period permitted by the applicable law. A Notice of Arbitration may be served on TNQ in accordance with the Applicable Laws and rules of service.

31.8. Notice

If TNQ commences arbitration against you, TNQ will give you notice at the email address or mailing address you have provided. You agree that any notice sent to this email or mailing address shall be deemed effective for all purposes, including without limitation to determinations of the adequacy of service. It is your obligation to ensure that the email address and/or mailing address on file with TNQ is up-to-date and accurate.

32. Confidentiality

32.1. The parties agree that the arbitration shall be kept confidential

The existence of the arbitration, the existence or content of the Claim, all documents and information provided or exchanged in connection with the arbitration, and any submissions, orders or awards made in the arbitration shall be kept confidential and no party shall disclose any of the foregoing to any third party except the tribunal, the AIAC, the parties, their counsels, experts, witnesses, accountants and auditors, insurers and reinsurers, and any other persons necessary to the conduct of the arbitration. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a party may disclose such confidential information:

- a. if the written consent of the other party is obtained;
- b. to the extent required by applicable law or by the regulations of any regulatory or supervisory authority of competent jurisdiction to which the party is or may become subject to or pursuant to any order of court or other competent authority or tribunal of competent jurisdiction;
- c. in connection with the commencement, pursuit or defence by a party of any bona fide legal proceedings to enforce or challenge any award rendered in the arbitration; and
- d. to the extent that the relevant confidential information is in the public domain otherwise than by breach of this agreement.

This term of confidentiality in this clause shall survive termination of these Terms and conclusion or stay of any arbitration brought pursuant to these Terms.

33. Governing law

Aside from where Applicable Law requires or provides you with a choice otherwise, these Terms (including this arbitration agreement) shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of Labuan.

34. Class action waiver

You and TNQ agree that any Claims shall be brought against TNQ in an arbitration on an individual basis only and not as a plaintiff or class member in a purported class or representative action. You further agree to waive any right for such Claims to be brought, heard, or arbitrated as a class, collective, representative, or private attorney general action, to the extent permissible by Applicable Law. Combining or consolidating individual arbitrations into a single arbitration is not permitted without the consent of TNQ.

The Terms constitute the whole agreement between you and us with respect to the TNQ Services. 35.6. Assignment

You may not assign or transfer any of your rights or obligations under the Terms without our prior written consent. However, we may assign or transfer any of our rights or obligations under the Terms at any time to anyone else, including, without limitation, in connection with any merger, acquisition, or other corporate reorganisation involving TNQ.

35.7. Invalidity

If, at any time, any clause or sub-clause of the Terms is or becomes illegal, invalid, or unenforceable in any respect, neither the legality, validity or enforceability of the remaining clauses or sub-clauses will in any way be affected or impaired.

These Terms may be translated into a language other than the English language. Any such translation is provided solely for your convenience. In the event of inconsistency or ambiguity, the English text will prevail.

35.10. Third party rights

Other than in relation to TNQ Affiliates, nothing expressed or referred to in these Terms will be construed to give any person other than the parties to these Terms any legal or equitable right, remedy, or claim under or with respect to these Terms or any clause or sub-clause of these Terms. The Terms and all of its clauses and sub-clauses are for the sole and exclusive benefit of the parties to these Terms and their successors and permitted assigns.

35.11. Survival

All clauses and sub-clauses of these Terms, which by their nature extend beyond the expiration or termination of these Terms, will continue to be binding and operate after the termination or expiration of these Terms.

35.12. Relationship of the parties

TNQ is not an agent of you in the performance of these Terms. These Terms shall not be interpreted as facts or evidence of an association, joint venture, partnership, or franchise between the parties.

35.13. Force Majeure

We will not be liable for any delay or failure to perform as required by these Terms to the extent the delay or failure is caused by a Force Majeure Event.

35.14. No waiver

No delay or omission by us in exercising any right or remedy under the Terms will operate as a waiver of the future exercise of that right or remedy or of any other rights or remedies under the Terms. The rights and remedies provided in the Terms are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by Applicable Law.

35.15. Privacy of others

If you receive information about another user through the Platform or from utilising the TNQ Services, you must keep the information confidential and only use it in connection with the TNQ Services and always in accordance with Applicable Law. You must not disclose or distribute any user information to a third party or use the information in any manner except as reasonably necessary to affect a Transaction.

35.16. Publication of breaches

Where you have breached these Terms, TNQ may publish, or otherwise provide its users with details of the breach, including any information that you have provided TNQ. TNQ may only do so where it determines that doing so is necessary for the protection of other users, and consistent with Applicable Law.

35.17. Death of TNQ Account holder

In the event of your death or incapacity, the representative(s) of your estate or the survivor or survivors must give us written notice as soon as practicable. If we have reason to believe you have died, we may suspend your TNQ Account. Your TNQ Account will be suspended until:

- a. a representative of your estate or authorised beneficiary either (1) creates a TNQ Account in accordance with these Terms; or (2) provides wire transfer instructions; and
- b. provides sufficient legal documentation that they are entitled to receive the assets in your TNQ Account; or
- c. you provide satisfactory proof that you are not deceased.

Beneficiaries receiving a wire transfer will receive the liquidated value of the assets in the TNQ Account, less any fees and costs associated with the transfer. Our ability to provide your representative(s) with the assets in your TNQ Account is subject to the restrictions imposed by Applicable Law and these Terms. We do not commit to any particular timeline for the transfer of assets held to the credit of your TNQ Account.

35.18. Tax

It is your responsibility to determine what, if any, taxes apply to the payments you make or receive, and it is your responsibility to collect, report, and remit the correct tax to the appropriate tax authority. You acknowledge that we may make certain reports to tax authorities regarding Transactions made on the Platform and that we may, in our sole discretion or as required by Applicable Law, provide you with additional documentation or records needed by you to calculate any tax obligations. We may also withhold and deduct at source any taxes due under Applicable Law in our sole discretion.
